Terms and conditions

The below signatory agrees to the following terms and conditions:

Client names: _____

This document constitutes a legally binding contract between the clients named above and Vicarage Boutique Hotel Limited (trading as The Old Vicarage Boutique Wedding Venue), company registration number 07170644, ("the hotel"). The venue asks that you do not sign and return these terms and conditions to the venue unless you fully understand each one. If you have any queries on any of the terms stated below please contact venue management for clarification before signing and returning.

Payment for an event

A non-refundable deposit of £1,000.00 is required at the time of booking to secure your wedding date. By paying this deposit you are agreeing to these terms and conditions.

The venue is not responsible for any loss or damage to any property whilst guests are onsite.

Full payment for the wedding is required one month prior to your wedding date.

Payments not received 30 days prior to the wedding event will be charged at 1% of the total bill per day without notice.

We do not accept card payments for final invoice payments; a BACS transfer should be arranged with the reference stating your surnames and date of wedding.

Once the final balance has been paid, the venue will make no monetary refund. The venue will also not make any substitutes, once final numbers have been confirmed and the final invoice has been paid we are unable to refund for any additional guests or substitute the cost paid for the additional guests for any other product.

The bride and groom will be responsible for any damage caused to the venue by themselves, a subcontractor or your guests and shall pay for such damage or loss of business caused as a result.

A gratuity of £150.00 will be added to the final invoice. This is greatly appreciated and divided equally between all staff. This is up to your discretion.

Boutique Bedrooms

All eight bedrooms are reserved for you and your guests. Each room must be allocated to a guest and can be paid for on your final invoice or by the guest occupying the room.

Any rooms not occupied will be charged in full to the bride and groom on check – out.

Upon check – in all guests are required to provide the venue with debit/credit card details, any bar purchases or room charges not settled on check out or any damage to rooms will be debited from the card details that have been provided for that room.

The venue will also require card details of either the bride or groom for the bridal suite. Any unresolvable damage caused to the venue during the stay for your wedding will be debited from the card details provided for the bridal suite.

It is the responsibility of the bride and groom to make all guests aware of venue procedure before their arrival. Any refusal by guests to comply with hotel regulations will result in that guest unfortunately not being able to stay at the venue.

In any event a room or area of the venue is deemed to need a deep clean by a professional team a £200.00 fee will be debited from the card details provided by the bride and groom.

The venue has a strict non – smoking policy and any deviation from this will result in a deep clean charge.

Additional children’s beds required in rooms are charged at £10.00 per bed.

Check – in times

If you have hired The Old Vicarage for exclusivity the night prior to your wedding, check – in to rooms is between the hours of 4pm – 10pm.

If exclusivity the night prior to your wedding is not required the bride and a maximum of six guests can access the bridal suite at 12.30pm on the day of the wedding. All seven other rooms may be accessed from 3pm onwards.

Under no circumstances will guests be able to check – in to rooms early or have any access to them. It is your responsibility to make all of your guests aware of check – in times.

Ensure that you make all your guests aware that The Old Vicarage is not a typical ‘hotel’ we are a wedding venue with rooms so amenities and flexibility may not be, as they would expect. Please ask guests to contact venue management if they have any questions regarding their rooms prior to your wedding.

Check – out the day after your wedding is strictly 10am. Please make your guests aware!

The venue will not be held responsible of any loss, damage or theft of any items belonging to any person attending a function.

We suggest the appointment of one or two members of your bridal party who can be responsible for the presents and valuables, as we cannot accept responsibility for any of these precious items. All must be removed on the night of the wedding.

Children are welcome at weddings; however the venue and its grounds are potentially hazardous. We cannot accept any liability whatsoever in the event of an accident due to children playing. We respectfully ask that guardians keep a watchful eye and ensure their children are always confined within the area of the wedding or well supervised.

No guests are permitted on site before 12.30pm on the day of a wedding; it is the responsibility of the bride and groom to ensure that guests follow venue procedure.

Licensing and entertainment

In accordance with the premises licence granted to the venue all doors and windows to the premises shall be kept closed after 9pm.

Doors and windows will be closed during the playing of any live music.

Alcohol consumption outside or in the grounds of the venue is forbidden from 11pm onwards.

The client must seek prior consent of the venue for any entertainment or service contracted for the function. The venue reserves the right to judge acceptable levels of noise or behaviour of the clients, guests or representatives and the client must take all necessary action to correct.

Venue management will have the final decision on any entertainment suppliers performing at the hotel.

In the event of failure to comply with management requests, the venue reserves the right to terminate the contract and stop the event without being liable for any refund or compensation.

Any equipment left on – site by suppliers must be removed from The Old Vicarage by 10am the following day. It is your responsibility to make your suppliers aware.

Any outdoor activities that you wish to hire for your wedding must end at 8pm.

Corkage

The bride and groom or their guests may bring no alcohol, beverages or food into the venue or grounds, unless pre-agreed by the hotel management.

Alcohol brought onsite will result in a £40 per bottle corkage fee being added to the bridal party room account. This includes gifts for or from guests. It is the responsibility of the bride and groom to make sure all guests are aware.

Residents of the venue are not allowed to bring their own alcohol to consume in their rooms. The venue will place a £40.00 corkage charge onto any room tab of anyone caught consuming their own alcohol in their room.

Corkage charges are as follows:

- A shot of alcohol as a wedding favour: £3.00 per shot
- A bottle of spirit: £85.00
- A bottle of champagne: £30.00
- A bottle of wine: £20.00
- A bottle of beer/cider: £3.50

Venue reputation

The venue will take all reasonable steps to fulfil the reservation to the best of its ability and in accordance with the details provided. The venue reserves the right to make alternative arrangements regarding any agreed details should any unforeseen problems arise, or to provide alternative services of at least equivalent standard at no additional costs. We do strongly advise our couples to consider wedding insurance in case of any unforeseen circumstances.

The venue reserves the right at its sole discretion to evict any person attending a function who behaves abusively or unreasonably.

At the absolute and unfettered discretion of the venue any function may be cancelled by the hotel even if paid in full, if the hotel has reasonable grounds for believing that the holding of such function would prejudice the reputation, good name or standing of the hotel.

On booking and paying your wedding deposit, both the bride and groom named above are agreeing to these terms and conditions with the venue.

We the bride and groom also agree that any photos taken during the wedding can be used for venue marketing specifically.

We agree to the above terms and conditions as stated above.
